INTRODUCING...TERRI ROSENAU

At a recent Membership Meeting, the Furaha Africa Relief Association welcomed a new member to its team—Terri Rosenau. Here's some information Terri shares about herself.

I grew up in a multi-cultural environment, living in Africa from the age of eight until I graduated from high school. Living in a third-world country, attending an international boarding school, and then later working as an adult in the same environment in an international school, instilled in me a passion for service. Over the years my work experience has built on this service desire, evident in the roles I have taken – from Executive Assistant to Office Manager, from Human Resources Manager to Administration. Whether working for a high-level executive or volunteering for non-profit organizations, my passion has always been about being in service to others. I reside in Vancouver, active in my local church, retired 2024, and enjoying the space for wherever God leads.
